Schurz, the Flying Dutchman, All for Low. When nearly seventy trustees, paid emformed a clique to nominate Seth Low for Mayor of Greater New York and to force him flown the throats of the people of the city, they cast about them for assistants. Grover Cleveland was out of a job, and hence his idolaters the Cleveland bushwhackers, or Mugwumps, as they are called, were temporarily at a loss to know where to worship. Seth Low was a free trader. He had bolted the nomination of James G. Blaine because he did not agree with the cardinal principles of the Republican par-He had become a Cleveland idolater himself. It was natural that the trustees and employees of Columbia should look to the unemployed Cleveland bushwhackers for help A majority of the men who are members of the Committee of Organization of the Citizens' Union who are not trustees or employees of Columbia University are Cleveland Mugwumps. It is not possible, of course, to say how every man of the 289 members of this committee voted, but many of them are known by their public records.

One of the most active of all the men in the Citizens' Union is William B. Hornblower He is a member of the Committee of Organization and also a member of the Executive Com mittee. He was one of the committee of the union which, in conjunction with the conference committee of the various boroughs, did the actual nominating of Seth Low. He was one of the men who signed the letter to Low telling him that the Columbia College clique and the Cleveland Mugwumps had succeeded in nominating him, Mr. Hornblower is a graduate of Columbia College. He has never had any political strength in this city. He was never heard of in politics here until Grover Cleveland on Sept. 18, 1893, named him for a place on the bench of the Supreme Court Grover Cleveland on Sept. 18, 1893, named him for a place on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States. The papers of that day say that Mr. Hornblower's name was received with amusement. Few people knew who he was. The Senate of the United States rejected the name of Mr. Hornblower on Jan. 14, 1894, and he hasn't been deeply concerned about politics since then until this year. He is a pronounced Cleveland Mugwump.

Richard Watson Gilder has been almost as active in the Citizens' Union Columbia University campaign as has been William B. Hornblower. Richard Watson Gilder is a member of the Committee of Organization and of the Executive Committee. He is Chairman of the Committee on Press and Literature of the Union. Mr. Gilder's political record in New York began in 1894. He was a member of Good Government Club F. He travelled around town on a cart tail preaching reform. Mr. Gilder was the poet laureate of the Cleveland Aministration. In Cleveland Mr. Gilder's sun rose and set. In February of this year, when Mr. Cleveland was flaishing his last term, Mr. Gilder made a series of speeches in which he said that Grover Cleveland was the embodiment of "the new patriotism," and was "all that an honest, energetic, and fearless term. Mr. Gilder made a series of speeches in which he said that Grover Cleveland was the embodiment of "the new patriotism," and was "all that an honest, energetic, and fearless patriot should be."

Some time ago The Sun showed that nearly one-tenth of the members of the Committee of Organization of the Citizens' Union did not even take the trouble to register last year when the honor of the country was assailed. It has not anything in particular to do with this story, but it may interest the gentlemen of the committee who didn't vote to read what Mr. Gilder thinks of them. Mr. Gilder announced his ideas in a speech not long ago. He said: "There are some men in this city who live here and make use of the city's opportunities for money making, and who for sellish reasons never go near the polls. Sometimes they of fishing and sometimes they deliberately hold their so-called residences in another community. These men who skulk ought to be classed morally with deserters in battle."

Another prominent member of the Committee of Organization of the Cits is Charles C. Beaman. Mr. Beaman has been a worshipper at the feet of Grover Cleveland. He was always a Cleveland free trader. In 1894, he was a member of that body. In 1895 he was a fusion candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, and was beaten out of his boots, lie has had no political influence in the city of New York.

Charles & Fairchild, one of the prime moyle bas had no political influence in the city of New York.

Charles a Fairchild, one of the prime movers in the Cits, and now the candidate of the Union for Comptroller, has been a worshipper of Cleveland always. It was Cleveland who made him politically. Fairchild is the figure-lead of the Grace Democracy. He has not had any political strength in the last twenty years, not since he was Attorney-General of the State. He was Deputy Attorney-General in 1873, and was elected Attorney-General in 1873, and was elected Attorney-General in 1873, and appointed him Assistant Secretary of the freasury that year. Daniel Manning was Becretary. Cleveland forced him out and Fairthild was made Secretary in his place. Dan Hanning was the man who did most to secure the nomination of Grover Cleveland for Governor and later for President. It has been said that his fate after that record was natural.

W. Lannan Bull is another of the Committee of Organization. He used to be President of the Stock Exchange. Of him it was said by a friend yesterday: "He wallowed in Cleveland-

W. Lannan Bull is another of the Committee of Organization. He used to be President of the Stock Exchange. Of him it was said by a friend yesterday: "He wallowed in Clevelandism. He was an idelater—a Mugwump of the Mugwumps." Mr. Bull never had the slightest influence in the Democratic party.

Wheeler H. Peckham was another man who went to the aid of the trustees and employees of Columbia University in their work. Mr. Peckham was a lieutenant of John Kelly, whon Kelly was the leader of Tammany Hall. He remained with Tammany until 1879, when Kelly boited the nomination of Gov. Robinson. Peckham got out of party politics then and became a bushwhacker. He was the boss of the People's Municipal League in 1890. Francis M. Scott who has recently been trying to get a nomination for Supreme Court Justice from Tammany by what the Low men describe as solling out the National Democracy. Mr. Peckham's devotion to Cleveland dates back to Cleveland's first term as Governor of New York. When the United States Senate rejected the nomination of William B. Hornblower, Cleveland's candidate for Justice of the Bupreme Court of the United States. Senate rejected the nomination of William B. Hornblower, Cleveland's candidate for Justice of the Eupreme Court of the United States. Cleveland appointed Peckham. This was on Jan. 21, 1894. Peckham went right to work to get the Senate indorsement. He tried to get the influence of all the Bar Association at work on the Senate. Peckham's name was rejected as emphatically as Hornblower's had been. Mr. Peckham has no more influence in politics today than has no more influence in politics to George L. Rives. Mr. Rives was always a lumbia.

Another prominent worker in the Union is George L. Rives. Mr. Rives was always a Cleveland Mugwump idolater. He was appointed Assistant Secretary of State under Bayard during Cleveland's first term. He was a member of the Executive Committee of the Executive Committee of the Executive Leasabout as much political following as has his cousin, Amelie Rives. Columbia gave the title LL. D. to him.

Everett P. Wheeler is a member of the Cits' Committee on Organization. He has always been a rabid Clevelandite. It is easier to get a line on the political strength of Mr. Wheeler than it is on the strength of many of the Cleveland idolaters who are booming Seth Low. Wheeler ran for Governor of New York in 1894. In New York city he poiled 2,000 votes out of 280,000. In the State he polled 27,000 out of 1,275,671.

Wheeler rander the polled 9.000 years of 1n New York city he polled 27,000 out of 1,275,071.

Austen G. Fox always was a Cleveland idolater of the devoted kind. He has also nearly always been a candidate for District Attorney of New York county. He is well up in the Fairchild-Scott-Grace Democracy. He prosecuted the case that the Goo Goos yot up against Col. John R. Fellows, and was beaten out of his beats.

John R. Fellows, and was beaten out of his boots.

This list may be concluded with the names of Carl Schurz and Simon Sterne of the Committee of Organization of the Citizens Union, Of their devotion to Cleveland little need be said. They were Cleveland pillars just as they are now "ffizens" Union pillars, Seth low is truly the candidate of Columbia College and of the Cleveland idolaters.

LOVE GROVER, LOVE LOW. POTE FOR GEORGE, SAYS GOF. SMITH | SHEPARDITES' TICKET. A Cold and Cutting Answer to Tammany

John C. Sheehan has been sending out tele-grams to Democratic and fusion Governors of the Western States, asking them if it is not the duty of all genuine Democrats to support the Tammany-McLaughlin ticket in the Mayoralty fight. A reporter of THE SUN tried to get from Mr. Sheehan last night some of the answers, but Mr. Sheehan had gone to bed unusually early after a fatiguing day. This sample of the correspondence, however, comes to THE SUN, telegraphed from Helena, Mon.: FROM JOHN C. BHEEHAN TO GOV. ROBERT 1

SMITH OF MONTANA. "Please answer for publication if you do not think it the duty of all Democrats to support Van Wyck, nominee of the regular Democratic organization, for Mayor of Greater New York, who was firm and true to the national ticket in JOHN C. SHEEHAN."

FROM GOV. ROBERT B. SMITH TO JOHN C. SHEEHAN, "Judge Van Wyck, having been nominated by a convention that was afraid to indorse the national platform of the Democratic party as promulgated in Chicago in 1896, should be defeated, in my opinion. New York Democracy is not the kind the people of this country demand, and just as long as it attempts to sail under the name of Democracy, while proclaiming Republican principles, it should suffer defeat. Henry George should receive the vote of every true Democrat or lover of liberty.

Ex-Register Hugh McLaughlin, the veteran chieftain of the Democratic forces in Brooklyn, and James Shevlin, his first Heutenant, have gone to Sussex county, N. J., on a hunting trip. For the last two months Mr. McLaughlin had been much worried over the political situation and especially so in regard to the make-up of the county ticket. He felt the strain much more acutely than in any previous campaign in his long political career and decided that a hunting trip in Jersey with his favorite setter 'Breese' would be a most desirable change.

TO PREFENT ILLEGAL FOTING. Police Have Taken a Census of Cheap Hotels and Ledging Houses.

The police began, under orders of Chief Me-Cullagh, the annual election canvass of the lodging houses on Sunday morning. Immediately after midnight squads of policemen went down the Bowery, through Park row, and lower Mulberry street, and sent detachments into every cheap hotel, lodging house, or boarding house where the floating population of the city is anchored by night. The register of each house was examined, and the lodgers, too. In the case of each one it was ascertained how long he had been a lodger in the place. Any one coming later will find himself shut out of the registry and of the polls, unless he can prove residence and of the polls, unless he can prove residence elsewhere in the district on or prior to Oct. 2. The thirty days' term of residence necessary to a vote shuts him out if he cannot.

The Chief's orders were to include every "suspected" place of colonization. When the registry is completed the Captains' reports of the canvass will be compared at Police Headquarters with the registry lists and with the register of lodgers kept under the supervision of the Board of Health in all these places between Sept. 1 and Nov. 15. By this means it will be possible to defeat any attempt to pack a house with illegal voters, or, at least, any attempt on their part to vote. The Chief gave his Captains to understand that he would hold them personally responsible for any discrepancies in their reports exhibited by such a test.

Incidentally the police took note of any evidence of legitimate overcrowding, as it were, and sent warning of it to the Health Department.

Effort to Name an Independent for Justice by Petition in Order to Help Burr.

The politicians who made Joseph A. Burr andidate for Supreme Court Justice in Brooklyn fear that he will be defeated overwhelm ingly by Justice Willard Bartlett. The mere announcement that Justice Bartlett had been enominated was sufficient to attract to his support thousands of independent Democrats and regular Republicans.

The Burr men have resorted to a small dodge, hoping thereby to elect Mr. Burr. Yesterday they circulated petitions favoring the nomina tion of Ezra Tuttle, an independent Democrat of the Jimmy O'Brien organization. They were active in soliciting signatures. Their purpose is to secure names enough to entitle Mr. Tuttle to a place on the official ballot. Copies of the petition were circulated in the Coroners

"You needn't vote for Tuttle. We are just putting him up to induce independent Democrats to vote for him instead of Justice Bartlett. That will help to elect Burr. That's our plan."

Copies of the petition were circulated in all the public buildings where Worth influences are dominant. The names of a number of men employed in offices controlled by Worth and his licutemants are attached to the petitions. nts are attached to the petitio

The Republican and Democratic County Con entions having been put off to Thursday after oon, Oct. 7, the Bureau of Elections declared vesterday that Oct. 7 is the last day for filing certificates of party nominations under the law. The political lawyers protested that the ith was the last day, but Gen. Rodenborg, who rules the bureau, responded that Oct. 7 was the ast day, in the view of the bureau. The office will be kept open until midnight. Party nomi nations sent in after that will not be accepted, unless the bureau is mandamused to receive them. The 8th is the first day of registration.

The law says that certificates party nominations shall be filed "at least twenty-five days before the election." Nov. 2 is election day. Oct. 8 to Nov. 1 inclusive are twenty-five full days.

NOMINATED COINCIDENTLY BY THE COMMITTEE OF FIFTY.

Mix-Up of Disgrantled Democrats and Republicans-Binrichs for Borough President and Jacob Nea for sheriff, the Place the Regular Democrats Wouldn't Give Him.

The National Democrats in Brooklyn, familiarly known as the Shepardites, held their County Convention last night in Apollo Hall, in Court street. There were 200 delegates, com-prising, on a conservative estimate, about a tenth of the entire strength of the organization. Charles J. Patterson, who has been the boss of the little Mugwump flock since Edward M. Shepard started on a European trip, presided, and Walter H. Roy was secretary.

Mr. Patterson told the delegates how the poitical atmosphere had been clearing somewhat in the last few days, and how the wise heads in each body had decided that a union of the National Democracy and the Committee of Fifty. the Brooklyn annex to the Citizens' Union, or local nominations was highly desirable. He was frank enough to admit, by way of apology for depriving the convention of its legitimate functions, that such a coalition had been prolected at "perfectly unauthorized conferences."

Walter C. Burton then offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five to consult with a similar committee of the Committee of Fifty in regard to the county nominations, Cha rmap Patterson to be one of

"Are we an annex to the Committee of Fifty ?" a delegate inquired. There was no response and the resolution was adopted. Chairman Patterson appointed Messrs. D. S. Ramsay, Herman A. Matz. George F. Peabody, and Michael E. O'Connor as his associates, and a recess was taken to give them an opportunity to confer with the sub-committee of the Committee of Fifty. The conference took place at the Library building in Montague street and extended over an bour. The sub-committee of the Fifty who joined in the confab wers W. S. White, H. W. Maxwell, H. W. Sher-ill, W. S. Ogden and Jackson Wallace.

Mr. Patterson, on returning to his convention, reported that the joint committees had agreed unanimously upon this slate:

For President of the Borough—Fred W. Hinrichs. the resolution was adopted. Chairman Patter

For President of the Borough—Fred W. Hinrichs.
For Register—William J. McKelvey.

For County Clerk—John R. Sutton.
For County Treasure—Jacob S. Van Wyck.
For Coroners—Dr. George R. Kuhn and Dr. Herber
Williams

For Coroners—Dr. George R. Kuhn and Dr. Herbert F. Williams.
The ticket is the most picturesque and variegated ever put up in Brooklyn. Mr. Hinrichs has been identified closely with the Shepardites since their organization and served as Register of Arrears under Mayor Schieren.
Mr. McKelvey is a life-long Republican and a veteran policeman, and has been Superintendent of he force since Patrick Campbell resigned two years ago. He told Mr. Patterson yesterday that he would resign his $5,000 job and retire on a pension of $2,500 on receiving the nomination of the Citizens' Union and the National Democrats, so confident was he that the ticket would win.
Jacob Neu is a Civil Justice, to which office he was elected by the Democrats two years ago. He was a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff by the regular Democracy this year, and feit so chagrined over his defeat that he went over to the enemy.
John R. Sutton is the present City Auditor through the favor of the Republicans. He was the candidate of the Worth faction for County Cierk, and went down to defeat with all the other Worth candidates.
Jacob C. Van Wyck is a Shepardite pure and other Worth candidates.

Jacob C. Van Wyck is a Shepardite pure and simple. Dr. Kuhn is also a full fledged Mugwunp. and Dr. Williams, the other candidate for Coroner, was vouched for by the Committee of Fifty. The slate went through with only slight frie

The slate went through with only slight friction. The question of nominating a candidate for District Attorney was left in abeyance to be disposed of by a committee, pending the decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in regard to the duration of District Attorney Backus's term.

An effort was made to have Josiah T. Marian, the regular Democratic candidate, indorsed for the District Attorneyship in case the courts decide that there is a vacancy in the office, but it was squelched.

FILING NOMINATIONS AT ALBANY. Last Day for the Regulars, but Independent

ALBANY, Oct. 4 .- This was the last day for filing with the Secretary of State certificates of regular party nominations. Independent nominations may be filed up to and including Oct. 8. columns for the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, and Socialist Labor parties. The People's party seems to have abided by the decision of the Attorney-General, that they were not en titled to a party column this year, as they cast less than 10,000 votes last fall. The People's party has not filed any nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, as has been usual with them, and they will not be represented on the official ballot this year unless they nominate by petition. This is unlikely, owing to the great work necessary to secure the 6,000 names which are required before such a nomination can be recognized by the Secretary of State.

There was received at the Secretary of State's office to-day a certificate of nomination by the office to-day a certificate of nomination by the Mayor, Ashbel P. Fitch for Comptroller, and R. Ross Appleton for President of the Council of Greater New York. Secretary of State Palmer determined that this certificate was not required to be filed at Albany, and so notified the officers of the Republican County Committee of New York. The law requires that this certificate shall be filed with the Police Commissioners in New York city, and that they in turn shall notify the County Clerks of New York, Kings, Queens, and Richmond.

Petitions favoring the independent nomination by the United Democracy of Charles Frederick Adams of New York city for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals are being received at the office of the Secretary of State in small batches. The sending of these petitions to Albany is a mistake, as they should be forwarded to Secretary Erra W. Tuttle at 42 East Twenty-third street, New York city. This independent organization has taken the liberty bell for its emblem. Francis M. Bixby, David Lloyd, and Henry Nichols of New York city, Robert Stewart of Brooklyn and Winfield S. Overton of Whitestone are named as the committee having charge of the petition favoring Mr. Adams's independent nomination.

FUSION IN SCHENECTADY.

Silver Democrat Named for Mayor and

SCHENECTADY, Oct. 4 .- As the result of a deal between two factions of the party in this city the Democratic City Convention, held this evening, was quiet and characterized by marked indifference. For some time past the silver element has been making a flerce fight for the nomination for Mayor of Dr. Charles C. Duryce, and opposing the renomination of Harry W. Dennington, present City Treasurer, an alleged gold Democrat, for that office. The two factions finally patched up a truce by agreeing to support both candidates. John McDermott, Chairman, in calling the convention to order, said that he hoped the proceedings would be such as to give outsiders the impression that the party to give outsiders the impression that the party was united.

After a fierce discussion over the alleged swollen representation of delegations from the silver wards, which resulted in full delegations being seated, resolutions were adopted scoring he alleged extravagance of the present Republican municipal administration and nledging the Democratic party to an honest administration, indorsing the State and county candidates of the party, and affirming allegiance to the principles of the Democratic party as enunciated in its last platform.

The ticket named was as follows: For Mayor, Dr. Charles C. Duryee; City Treasurer, H. W. Dennington; City Juge, Louis M. King; Assessor, Charles Stevenson; Police Commissioner, William Hathaway; Game Constable, Richard Wasson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 .- The patient men and omen who have been calling daily at the Vhite House in the hope of seeing President McKinley were surprised to-day by an invita-tion to walk into his private office. Most of hem had rehearsed speeches for the occasion but when the opportunity came they were too utterly overcome to say more than a few words in explanation of their presence. Of course, al in explanation of their presence. Of course, all of them wanted something. Very few were not cofficeseekers. To each importunate the President listened gravely, but did not commit himself. The crowd thus received consisted of those who did not have Senators and Representatives to speak for them or to introduce them to Mr. McKinley.

Very few callers except Cabinet officers and Congressmen have been able to get the ear of the President since his return to Washington. To-day the official visitors were not many and they had transacted their business by noon. That is why the unindorsed contingent succeeded ingetting into the executive sanctum. Secretary Porter will be back in Washington to-morrow, and the rule permitting free intercourse with the President, which was given in the earlier months of the Administration, will probably be rescinded for the good of the President's health.

VAN WYCK A HEAVY LOAD. Richmond County Democrats Greaning Ove the Yellow Deg Ticket.

Richmond County Democrats are groaning over the load which Tammany has hoisted upon hem in the shape of the nomination of Van Wyck for Mayor, and scarcely one can be found who is not outspoken in his belief that Van Wyck will injure their prospects of success with their county ticket, if he doean't swamp them at the polls. The local politicians knew they had a big contract on their hands to defeat the Republicans in the county, and were preparing to nominate the strongest ticket they could get. They had hoped that Tammany would give them support with equally strong names, but they are disappointed and discouraged. One prominent Democrat said yesterday that." Van Wyck won't add any more strength to our ticket than a sick cat. Why they forced his nomination I can't understand." Wyck will injure their prospects of success

Y., Oct. 4 .- The Republican Assembly Convention for the Second district of Westchester county, which comprises the towns of Rye Harrison, New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, White Plains, Scarscale, Greenburg, Pelham and West Chester and City Island, in the annexed district, was held at New Rochelle to-day. The contesting delegates from New Rochelle and White Plains presented their credentials to the District Committee, composed of Jacob Halstead, Chairman; George Lambden and William E. Slocum. When Mr. Halstead called the convention to order he announced that the committee had decided to follow the rulings of former conventions and admit the White Plains delegation, which for the third time had been protested against because of alleged irregularities, and the Ward-Robertson delegates in New Rochelle headed by Charles Earwicker. The temporary roll of delegates was then called. When New Rochelle was reached W. K. Palmer, who headed the Burns-Fairchild delegates, objected to the decision of the committee. He was declared out of order and hooted down. A committee consisting of Congressman Ward Frank V. Millard, and ex-Assemblyman John N. Stewart was then appointed by the Chairman to decide the question on the New Rochelle contest. They also decided in favor of the Earwicker delegates. The Palmer delegates then left the hall and the Ward faction proceeded to business. Justus A. B. Cowles of Rye-then nominated George H. Mahrs of Greenburg. Hradford Rhodes seconded the nomination and it was made unanimous.

The success of the Ward-Robertson faction was so pronounced that Ben L. Fairchild, who has been leading the opposing forces against Ward for several years, surrendered. He adjected to the decision of the committee. He was was so pronounced that Ben L. Fairchild, who has been leading the opposing forces against Ward for several years, surrendered. He addressed the convention, praised its candidates, and expressed the hope that all Republicans would cast aside personal prejudices and rally to the support of all the Republican candidates. He acknowledged the defeat and surrender of his faction when he said that they—meaning the isaders—had agreed among themselves that the District Committee should consist of J. A. B. Cowles, Jacob Halstead and George C. Menthes, Congressman Ward and his followers were astonished by Fairchild's surrender. Whether Senator Burns and the other leaders will follow Fairchild is only conjecture. Congressman Ward now has control of the Republican organization in Westchester county.

READING, Pa., Oct. 4 .- The Democratic State Senator, W. Oscar Miller, was arrested this afternoon charged with assisting in buying up bunch of delegates at the last Democratic County Convention. The sworn allegations nade before Alderman Brownwell is that Senator Miller, who was taking a hand in fixing up a slate for the county offices, bargained for a lot state for the county offices, pargained for a for-of votes in the conventior. to nominate a candi-date for Recorder of Deeds. The alleged stipu-lation was $1,000 spot cash, or $600 cash and a clerkship in the Recorder's office. The dele-gates are said to have been delivered, and Sena-tor Miller's friend, Daniel W. Recare, noni-nated. The alleged bargain was not carried out on the Senator's part, it is said, hence the suit on the part of the person who says he delivered on the part of the person who says he delivered the men. A similar suit was begun against Reeser. Senator Miller says the charge is absolutely untrue, and that it is simply an attempt at blackmail or intimidation. Each accused man gave bail of $1,000.

REPUBLICANS IN FINE TRIM

TRACY WILL MAKE HIS FIRST CAM-PAIGN SPEECH ON FRIDAY.

TO COMPETE WITH EUROPE. on, Harrison, Also, May Address the Cooper Union Meeting—It is to Be a Sharp, Ag-gressive Campaign, and Thousands of Dem-MEETS WITH GENERAL FAVOR ocrats Will Desert the Yellow Dog Ticket.

The heavy Republican cannonading of the ampaign will begin in Cooper Union on Friday night. The Hon. Benjamin F. Tracy is then to make his first speech of the campaign, and President Quigg said last night that pro other Republicans of national renown will then range themselves in battle line alongside of Gen. Tracy. The Republican county ticket will have been nominated by that time, and the battle will be on in every district in Greater New York.
The Republican fight, President Quigg said, is to be wholly aggressive. The city ticket is one that commends itself to all believers in stable government, and the county ticket, which is to be nominated on Thursday night, will be equally sound in every particular. On the other hand, Tammany, with its "yellow dog ticket," has been on the defensive from the moment that the Tammany convention adjourned in Grand Central Palace. The platform on which the Tammany candidates are struggling to run, Mr. Quigg continued, is a platform of evasion nd dishonesty, and it is known in Republican circles that the majority of the Tammany leaders are utterly disgusted and demoralized over the "yellow dog ticket." The news was brought to Republican headquarters in Madison square yesterday afternoon that thousands of Demorats in business, either in a large or small way, who believe in sound money and are not partial to "yellow dog" candidates, propose to stand by Gen. Tracy and his associates on the Republican city ticket. As for the Republicans, there is not, it was made known, a single instance of anything but unquestioned loyalty and enthusiasm for the candidates and the platform on which they stand. The records of 'len. Tracy, Ashbel P. Fitch, and it. Ross Appleton are without a flaw, it was added, and supporting them is a platform which appeals to the half a million voters in the greatest metropolis of the Western hemisphere. As the campaign progresses, according to expert opinions, Tammany's forces will become more and more demoralized, under the hostile criticism of communities of voters who do not relish the "yellow dog ticket" and the "yellow dog platform" which Tammany has thrust before them.

President Quigg declined to give any further attention to the stories still circulated by Mr. circles that the majority of the Tammany lead-Fabrics at $35, are very popular.

who do not relies the "yellow dog ticket" and the "yellow dog platform" which Tammany has thrust before them.

President Quigg declined to give any further attention to the stories still circulated by Mr. Low's friends that Gen. Tracy is to be withdrawn in favor of Mr. Low. Such a report was put in circulation again last night. President Quigg said:

"It is only a silly lie and shouldn't be noticed at all. There are two parties in this campaign which stand for principles. One is the Republican party, standing on the St. Louis platform, and the other is the Henry George party, standing on the Chicago platform."

It was ascertained at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night that if ex-President Benjamin Harrison can arrange his affairs he will certainly be at Cooper Union on Friday night to speak for Gen. Tracy and the Republican platform on which he stands. All of Gen. Tracy's friends are easer to have Gen, Harrison speak if it is consistent with his engagements, considering Gen. Harrison one of the most effective campaign speakers in the United States. From the close of the Cooper Union meeting until the Saturday night before election day, President Quigg and his campaigners in Greater New York are to turn in sturdy orators in all of the districts. It is to be a booming campaign and a fight to the finish. President Quigg added, and as the battle progresses the weakness of Van Wyex and Low, in his opinion, will be amply demonstrated. Mr. Low, he continued, stands on a platform which represents his personal whims and was built to gratify a personal vanity. Tammany's platform, on the other hand, is chock-full of buncombe and represents nothing but the efforts of three-card monte politicians to perperrate a three-shell game on the voters of Greater New York.

SENATOR WELLINGTON BEATEN. In His Own County, Too-The Flery Dick fo

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 4.-Senator Welling on met with another crushing defeat to-day, this time in his own county, where he was sup posed to be invincible. However, his oppone may have overreached themselves, for in their eagerness to make a combination that would beat what is known as the Allegany county ring, which includes Gov. Lowndes, they have consented to the nomination of David E. Dick for State Senator. Dick was a member of the last House of Delegates and made himself conspicuous by denouncing mine owners and capitalists generally, and posing as the representative of labor. So extreme was he in his views that he was dubbed the Anarchist. Dick was a miner before he became a politician, and is a flery speaker. The feeling in the county is intensely bitter, and though heretofore regarded as a Republican stronghold, it may now be carried by the Democrats. The Governor says he will support the ticket, but the mine owners will fight Dick to the death. beat what is known as the Allegany county

MR. AND MRS. MARGUIS LET GO. They Will Sue for Damages All Mands Con cerned with Their Arrest.

In the Essex Market Court yesterday Magistrate Deuel dismissed the charge of felonious as-sault made by Detectives Clifford, Sachs and Charles L. Marguis, who was arrested in Second avenue early Friday morning after he had engaged in an altercation with the detectives, who, he said, had insulted his wife. Mrs. Marguis, who was also arrested on a charge of soliciting, was honorably discharged. In rendering his decision the Magistrate said:

"Regarding the statement made by Marguis that he was assaulted in the station house. I think it was the result of his excited and crazed imagination. I do not believe that it took place. As for the affair in Second avenue, where Marguis is alleged to have assaulted the detectives by hitting them with his cane, I think a mistake was made all round. No reputable citizen has come forward to verify the statements of the policemen, and I do not believe that any will. Reputable citizens would view such a happening with horror. I do not think that Marguis wilfully struck the policemen, but did it in the belief that he was protecting his wife from insult. As for the charge against his wife, I am convinced that it is not true, and that a mistake was made."

Lawyer Abram Sarasohn, law partner of Assistant District Attorney Rosalsky, who appeared for the prisoners, announced that he would begin actions for $20,000 damages against all the police officials concerned in the case. who, he said, had insulted his wife. Mrs. Mar

They remarked that it was evident that I was determined to compete with European fur merchants and that they would recommend their friends. Those who purchased Sealskin Garments, Persian Lamb Jackets, Sable Scarfs and Capes and other fashionable furs, expressed their appreciation of the opportunity afforded them to buy at home from a reliable house and at such satisfactory prices.

One lady, who purchased in Geneva, expressed regrets that she had not waited until she got home. She frankly acknowledged that our Russian Sables were better for the money than those she had bought, and she could have saved the duty and the trouble of bringing them over.

Merchants Pleased.

A Western merchant, a splendid judge of furs, who returned last week, and to whom we sold quite a large quantity of furs, admitted that our Mink Capes were better made and $25 cheaper than those which he had priced on Regent Street, London, and that our Sable Capes, Scarls and Muffs were as low as those he priced in Geneva, and gave us credit for selling American products at lower prices. He had been informed that I was competing with Europe and was anxious to back me up in the fight. These evidences of appreciation of the declaration of war which I have made against Geneva. The only advantage Europe has is in the character of the dye of Sealskin and Persian Lamb. Including the duty, the difference in cost between London and New York on the average Seal or Persian Jacket is about $25.00.
